

If someone threatens you, offends you, spits on you, hits you, throws something on you, or destroys your property because you are Roma, you beg or collect bottles or cans, then this may be a HATE CRIME.

Is it urgent? Call 112 and, say HELP (it's free of charge).

It's not urgent? Call 0763-17 50 62 (leave a message if we do not respond).

Show this card to a passer-by you think will help.

Hey! This person may have been subjected to hate crime and needs your help.

The person does not speak Swedish.

If the situation is serious, call the police 112 or 114 14

You are also welcome to contact us and describe what has happened or what you have witnessed. We work at Skåne Stadsmission with a project documenting hate crime.

You reach us at 0763-17 50 62

Read more on skanestadsmission.se/hatbrott

This project is financed by the European Union's Rights, Equality and Citizenship Programme (2014-2020)

