

NOMINATE A HUMAN RIGHTS DEFENDER FOR THE
CIVIL RIGHTS DEFENDER OF THE YEAR AWARD
2022

The Civil Rights Defender of the Year Award is awarded annually to a prominent human rights defender who, despite the risk to their own safety, continues the fight for respect and protection of civil and political rights. Read more about the prize here.

The award highlights the situation of human rights defenders at risk. Through international recognition and support to the organisation represented by the recipient, the award enhances their human rights work.

The recipient must carry out their work without the use of violence and within an independent human rights organisation/network.

Candidates:

- Should have a central role in the human rights movement in the country or region where the person is active;
- Should have made exceptional contributions to the promotion and protection of civil and political rights; and
- Could be in need of international attention to improve the person's protection.

Eligibility for nomination:

- Individuals and organisations can be nominated;
- Self-nomination is not allowed; and
- Incomplete application forms will not be considered.

Nomination is per invitation only. Additional references are recommended but not required.

Nominations must be sent to award@crd.org before 18:00 CET 25 October 2021, with the email subject "Nomination for the Civil Rights Defender of the Year Award 2022". Should you be hesitant to submit the nomination over email for security reasons, use a secure channel to connect with your contact at Civil Rights Defenders for guidance.

A complete nomination consists of a filled out nomination form and a consent form signed by the nominee.
